The Reverend Canon Gerald Richard Addington (24th June 1938 - 30th July 2002) who with the Reverend Canon Sally Fogden MBE, founded the Addington Fund

Our Remit

Supporting Rural Communities with

- Disaster relief
- Affordable and retirement homes
- Help for new entrants
- White goods for farm workers

Our Vision

We aim to help keep our countryside and rural communities socially vibrant and economically sustainable through:

- Supporting farmers affected by climatic, disease and other disasters
- More homes to help older or infirm farmers leave their farms with dignity
- More affordable homes to enable younger families to work in rural industries
- Opportunities for able and ambitious young entrants to start a career in agriculture

Our History & Track Record

- Founded early this century after outbreaks of Classical Swine Fever (CSF) and then Foot and Mouth Disease (FMD) decimated British agriculture
- National Charity covering England and Wales
- Moved into helping with rural housing needs in 2002
- Distributed nearly £12m in aid to UK farmers
- Over 60 qualifying tenants in Addington properties with demand for more
- George Stephens Trust to help farm workers with the purchase of white goods
- Proven efficient administrator of grant aid for all organisations including Governments
- Over 43,000 people have supported our work
- Our very low net cost base makes us highly sustainable

Our Structure & Governance

- We are a highly sustainable charity. Almost all of our already low running costs are covered by income from property, so nearly every pound we receive in donations can go directly to our investments in disaster relief and wider rural sustainability.
- Our Chairman and Board of Trustees are rigorously selected for their professional skills and experience, and serve defined terms of office. In addition to the main board, each Trustee sits on one or more of our three working groups: Housing, Marketing, and Governance and Resourcing. All Trustees work closely with our CEO, and formally report to the Chair of Trustees.
- Addington Fund is registered with the Charities Commission, registration number 1097092, and with the Fundraising Regulator

A highly sustainable Farming Charity

Farming Help

- We work with the other major rural charities FCN and Forage Aid under the Farming Help umbrella.
- Each is a national organisation, yet has a niche area of operation
- One point of contact
- Greater geographical coverage and operational efficiency
- Less duplication and wasted resources
- Farming Help is facilitated by The Prince's Countryside Fund
